- Both groups rank เจ้านายคะ > Zoo > Into the New World identically

- Into the New World is slightly more favoured by non-singers (26% vs 21%) — perhaps its theatrical K-pop style resonates more with the general audience

Note: theme counts below are based on qualitative coding of open-text responses; one response may cover multiple themes.

What the Audience Loved Most by Attendance History

Theme	First time (22 resp)	2nd time (18 resp)	3+ times (8 resp)
Diverse / accessible repertoire	2	6	3
Vocal quality & beauty	4	2	2
Emotional delivery & dedication	4	3	1
Dance / choreography	4	0	0
Program coherence with theme	3	2	2
Arrangement boldness & quality	0	2	0

Performers' joy & energy	1	2	1
Unity & teamwork	2	0	1

Key insights:

- First-timers spread appreciation evenly across vocal quality, emotional delivery, dance, and program coherence — everything feels new and impressive
- Dance is exclusively a first-timer highlight — no 2nd or 3+ timer mentioned it as what they loved most
- 2nd-timers are most excited by diverse/accessible repertoire (6 of 18 responses) and appreciate boldness in song selection ("การกล้าที่จะเลือกเพลงที่แตกต่าง")
- 3+ timers emphasise accessible repertoire with a note of progress — several explicitly mention improvement from previous years ("แนวเพลงที่หลากหลายกว่าเดิมมากขึ้น")

What the Audience Loved Most by Choir Background

Theme	Choir Singers (25 resp)	Non-Singers (23 resp)
Dance / choreography	4	1
Vocal quality & beauty	4	2
Program coherence with theme	4	2
Dedication & emotional delivery	3	5
Diverse / accessible repertoire	3	5
Arrangement boldness & quality	2	0
Unity & teamwork	1	2

Key insights:

- Choir singers are the primary champions of dance — they appreciate the craft required to sing and move simultaneously
- Singers also notice arrangement quality as a highlight ("Arrange เพลงดีมากครับ บางเพลงไม่นึกว่าจะทำแบบ gospel ได้ออกมาดีขนาดนี้") — non-singers never mentioned this
- Non-singers are driven more by emotional impact — dedication, performers looking "invested", feeling immersed ("ดูแล้วรู้สึกจมในเพลง")
- Both groups value vocal quality and diverse repertoire equally

Messages to Members (Q18)

Tone across all responses was overwhelmingly warm and encouraging:

- "เก่งมากๆ" / "ดีมาก" — appeared in the majority of responses
- "ขอให้งัดเติบโต" — audience wants to see the choir grow
- Multiple first-time attendees expressed intent to return
- At least 2 responses in English and Chinese — signs of diverse reach

Messages to Members by Attendance History

Group	Tone	Notable patterns
-------	------	------------------

First time (19 resp)	Enthusiastic, surprised	Express intent to return; reference specific songs; some include emoji; one English response ("Really good singers")
2nd time (17 resp)	Warm, invested	Mix of encouragement and embedded technical suggestions; one Chinese response (你们真厉害!); tone feels like a returning supporter
3+ times (8 resp)	Personal, familial	Most affectionate tone; acknowledge the discipline and sacrifice required; use insider language; express international ambitions for the choir

Key insight: Messages grow progressively warmer and more personal with each return visit. Loyal fans treat the choir like family — their messages read less like audience feedback and more like notes from friends.

Messages to Members by Choir Background

Group	Tone	Notable patterns
Choir Singers (22 resp)	Collegial, specific	Reference particular songs or technical moments; some express desire to join ("อยากมาร่วมงานด้วย"); encouragement with insider understanding
Non-Singers (22 resp)	Moved, inspired	Focus on emotional impact ("เต็มใจในใจ"); express wanting to come back; acknowledge the dedication without the technical vocabulary

Key insight: Choir singers write as peers who understand what it takes; non-singers write as audience members who were moved by something they can't fully articulate technically — both equally warm, but from different vantage points.

Agenda 1.3 — Lessons Learned and Post-Concert Review

Areas for Improvement (Q16)

1. Venue & Seating — most critical issue (~10 mentions)

- Venue too small; tickets sold out very fast

"สถานที่ค่อนข้างเล็กและบัตรเต็มเร็ว ครั้งหน้าอาจจะมีการจองบัตรล่วงหน้า"

"ที่นั่งน้อย จองยาก เต็มไว้มาก"
- Seats not staggered — front row blocks back row's sightlines

"การจัดที่นั่งให้สลับให้เกิดช่องว่างจะได้ไม่บังกัน"
- Venue too small for dance numbers — felt cramped

"สถานที่ เวทีเล็ก ในการแสดงที่มีเต้น ดูอึดอัดไปหน่อย"
- Registration booth unclear — no visible signage on arrival

"อยากให้มีสตาฟมาต้อนรับหรือแจ้งจุดลงทะเบียน ตอนที่มาถึงรู้ว่าเป็นหอประชุม แต่ไม่เห็นโต๊ะลงทะเบียนหรือป้ายอะไรเลย"
- Air conditioning not sufficient

"สถานที่แอร์ไม่ค่อยเย็นเท่าไรค่ะ"

2. Show Duration & Flow (~4 mentions)

- Show felt too short; audience wanted more

"เวลาแสดงน้อยไปหน่อย"

"เวลา อยากให้เพิ่มเวลาอะ เพราะเพลินมาก"

- Guests walking in and out between songs was disruptive

"ควรมีการกันแขกเดินเข้าออกระหว่างเพลง"

3. Vocal Balance & Technique (~5 mentions)

- Some singers appear tense or stiff

"แข็งเกร็งเกินไปในการร้อง"

- Soprano balance and confidence in prominent passages

"balance บางท่อนของเพลง, ความกล้าของ soprano เวลาโผล่ออกมา ส่วนใหญ่เป็นท่อนสวยๆลากยาว"

- Harmonization timing could be tighter

"บางเพลงรู้สึกว่า harmonize ออกมาดีเลย แต่ถ้าเหลื่อมจังหวะร้องให้เหลื่อมกันน้อยน่าจะให้ความรู้สึกที่กลมกลืนกันกว่านี้"

- Vocal quality can be pushed further

"รู้สึกยังไม่ค่อยสุด ในเรื่องคุณภาพการร้อง"

"เสียงร้องยังได้กว่านี้~"

- Bass support thin in several songs

"เพลงที่ 9 ควรเพิ่มเบส ให้บาลัดกับ So+Alto"

4. Song Flow & Program Direction (~4 mentions)

- Emotional arc of the setlist could be smoother

"การเลือกเพลงควรไล่ลำดับอารมณ์"

"รู้สึกส่วนตัวว่าอาจจะยังร้อยเรียงเพลงไม่สมเหตุเท่าไร"

- One returning attendee felt this program's song selection was weaker than previous year

"I think the song selection is not as good as last time. It follows the theme but maybe the dance broken the flow of the music direction."

- Dancing in some songs distracted from the vocal performance

"Should slow down the dancing, it distracts from the performance."

5. Storytelling & Narration (~2 mentions)

- Audience wants more narration or context between songs

"การเล่าเรื่องเพิ่มอีกสักหน่อยครับ"

Note: theme counts below are based on qualitative coding of open-text responses.

Areas for Improvement by Attendance History

Theme	First time (7 resp)	2nd time (13 resp)	3+ times (5 resp)
Venue size & ticket availability	2	5	0
Seating arrangement	1	2	0
Vocal quality / technique	0	3	3
Show duration (too short)	1	1	0
Song flow / program direction	1	2	0
Venue logistics (AC, food, signage)	2	1	0
Dance pacing	0	1	0
Guest movement between songs	0	0	1
Narration / storytelling	1	0	0

Key insights:

- Venue/seating dominates 2nd-timer feedback (5 of 13 responses) — they know how fast tickets sell out and feel the hall getting smaller as the audience grows
- 3+ timers focus almost entirely on vocal technique — soprano confidence, bass support, harmonization — the most demanding critics with the most specific feedback
- First-timers raise the softest issues: narration, ensemble readiness, AC — things that affected their first experience but are not showstoppers
- Dance pacing critique ("Should slow down the dancing") appears only in 2nd-timer responses

Areas for Improvement by Choir Background

Theme	Choir Singers (11 resp)	Non-Singers (14 resp)
Vocal technique (harmonization, soprano, bass)	4	2
Venue size & ticket availability	2	4
Seating arrangement	0	2
Show duration	1	1
Song flow / program direction	1	2
Venue logistics (AC, food, signage)	2	1
Ensemble readiness	1	0
Guest movement between songs	1	0

Key insights:

- Vocal technique critique is concentrated among choir singers — they hear specific issues (harmonization timing, soprano confidence, bass thinness) that non-singers notice only generally
- Non-singers are more focused on venue logistics and seating — the physical experience of attending

- One non-singer gave the most detailed note-by-note performance feedback of anyone in the survey, suggesting some non-singers have musical training even if they don't sing in a choir

Future Wishes for Kangwan Singers (Q17)

38 of 68 respondents (56%) answered this question.

3. International competition — especially among loyal fans
4. Musical theatre repertoire — strong among both singers and 2nd/3+ timers
5. Audience interaction — want more two-way engagement during the show
6. Diverse/themed programming (Disney night, T-Pop set, anime) — first-timer and singer driven

Future Wishes by Attendance History

More shows / keep going	1	2	1

Key insights:

- 2nd-timers bring the most specific repertoire ideas — Thai folk in choral style, anime songs ("Attack on Titan, Demon Slayer — guaranteed an audience"), fun songs
- Loyal fans (3+) are the most ambitious — 3 of 8 mention international competition; 2 specifically want audience interaction built into future shows; one envisions performing at Lumpini Park to attract Thai and international audiences
- International competition aspiration grows sharply with attendance — 0% of first-timers vs 33% of loyal fans

Audience interaction	1	1
Accessible / popular songs	1	2
Bigger venue / full production	1	2
More instruments / live band	0	1
Age / gender diversity	1	0
More shows / keep going	1	2

Key insights:

- Choir singers overwhelmingly want a bigger ensemble (5 of 20) — they understand directly how voice-part balance and repertoire range depend on headcount
- Singers are more drawn to musical theatre and themed programming — repertoire preferences mirror what they want to perform, not just hear
- Non-singers prioritise scale and accessibility — they want to bring more people, attend bigger venues, and have more opportunities to see the choir
